Matty has been a victorious institution so long that his lapse means more than any record of victories and defeats could indicate. There is a psychological point to be considered, for with Mathewson winning the point to be considered, for with Mathewson winning the point to be considered.

Norwegian Girl Overwhelms Mrs. Wightman with Tremendous Speed, Capturing Highest Lawn Tennis Honors.

By FRED HAWTHORNE.

Philadelphia, June 12.-Miss Molla Bjurstedt decisively defeated Mrs. George W. Wightman, of Boston, in the final round of the women's national lawn tennis championship tournament this afternoon by a score of 4-6, 6-2, 6-0. In winning the American title the fair Norwegian outdid all her previous performances on the courts.

The several thousand spectators gathered about the court of the Philadelphia Cricket Club at St. Martin's agreed that never before had they seen such a superlative exhibition by a woman as that put up by the new champion of the United States in the last two sets. Nothing seemed too difficult for her to get, and her returns were made with such tremendous pace that Mrs. Wightman was overwhelmed, outlasted and

Mrs. Wightman attained some mens ure of revenge an hour later, when and Harry C. Johnson, of Boston, feated Miss Bjurstedt and Irving Wright in a runaway match for the mixed doubles title. The score was 6-0, 6-1. Mrs. Wightman and her partner completely outplayed their opponents, taking the title in record

Matty's Return.

If Col. Mathewson is actually back, as his last performince in St. Louis indicated, the Giant cause looks pre-

There was a general feeling of confidence that Mrs. Wightman would prove her superiority in no uncertain manner, and that her court generalship, with her aggressive, bold attack at the net, would effectually curb the splendid driving game of Miss Bjurstedt and keep the title in this country.

Cup as an Incentive.

Directly beside the court was the great silver Wissahicken cup, put into competition for the first time this year and emblematic of the championship. A great bouquet of red, white and yellow roses filled the cup and drooped over the edge of the bowl.
